So many people asked- how come (since GOD ordained everything) do people come into our lives to hurt us...well, i think the issue is we use our free-will to change the role GOD ordained for them to play in our lives and therefore, they end up hurting us...we make the acquaintance a boyfriend or girlfriend because they so fit 'our' bill of what we are looking for, we stay at a job or leave when GOD has said leave or stay...the more we are in-tune with GOD and HIS purpose for us, the easier it becomes for us to be able to tell who is who and the roles they have been ordained to play, just saying...KDLI®™2012©
